

An Ideal Centre

What is a Centre?

It is one can say, a collectivity that comes together to do a special work. A work that is more than the sum of its individuals, and creates a multiplier effect.

What are the main features of an ideal centre?

1. It shares a common aspiration and attempts to realise it
2. It attempts a collective endeavour
3. It takes collective decisions
4. It is involved in conflict resolution
5. It upholds and upkeepes the inner and outer well-being of each of its members

A true centre is based on a certain Truth and tries to embody it.

In the Gnostic Centre, we are aspiring to become a Centre of Truth based on the central principle of consecration and surrender to The Divine Mother Shakti. And therefore our whole endeavour is towards a perfect action and manifestation of such principles in our day-to-day life and activities.
