At The Gnostic Centre, Ritika Goyal is responsible for the Centre's financial and legal matters. Ritika is also involved in the management of L'avenir, a research based pre-school of The Gnostic Centre. She is the Coordinator of The Gnostic Centre's journal, 'The Awakening Ray'.

Ritika has always been interested in social change — she has worked with street children and was also involved in an international youth movement (United Nations of Youth). Her special focus of research has been on how to develop the mind, and she has conducted workshops with students, as well as teachers.

Ritika is passionate about Culinary Art. In the field of Green Practices, her chief concerns are rainwater harvesting and conservation. She has facilitated sessions on collecting and cooking with indigenous herbs (at the Centre's Himalayan campus - the Monk's Retreat).

Ritika is a practising advocate at the High Court (Delhi) and specializes in Corporate Law. She is also on the Governing Council of Shikshantar school.
